Miss Mildred E. Manter,
Director, The Children's Museum of Boston,
Jamaica Plain,
Massachusetts.

My dear Miss Manter:

Referring to our former correspondence,
I send you just a line to say that our Committee has definitely assigned one of the Japanese Friendship Dolls to your Museum.

The little Japanese lady will be sent forward from here by express on Thursday, the fifth, and the accessories which go forward just a little later.

We will write you again when the doll has gone forward and send you the key to the case.

Sincerely yours,

Mary C. Moffat

Miss Mildred E. Manter,
Director, the Children's Museum of Boston,
Pine Bank, Olmsted Park,
Jamaica Plain,
Massachusetts.

My dear Miss Manter:

Referring to our previous correspondence, I am happy to inform you that one of the Japanese Friendship Dolls has been assigned to the Children's Museum of Boston, "Miss Kyoto" is being sent to you to-day, by express, and in a few days will follow her accessories which are in a storehouse here. The accessories did not travel with the Dolls but have been preserved for the permanent exhibits.

We understand that you will arrange to lend the Doll and accessories to the Public Library at Andover at such times as may be mutually agreeable. Of course you would need to be assured that proper provision is made, such as a suitable case.

We shall be glad to hear from you when the Doll and accessories have been received. You will find herewith key with which to unlock the case containing the Doll.

Sincerely yours,

Mary C. Moffat
